

Clinical Pharmacologist - Hertfordshire (United Kingdom)

A new, varied and exciting opportunity has arisen to join a leading international pharmaceutical company.

You will:

- Be responsible for the scientific aspects of clinical pharmacology
- Have knowledge of ICH good clinical practice (GCP) and the drug development process
- Lead the ongoing evaluation of clinical pharmacology data on pharmacokinetics, pharmacodynamics and safety
- Support the preparation of documentation for investigational new drugs (IND) and new drug applications (NDA)

You will receive:

- A competitive salary and bonus scheme plus a range of other excellent benefits
- A lucrative career prospects and long term growth opportunities

If you are interested in this position, email your CV to marie@stelfoxuk.com or call on +44(0)1273 727 930 for a confidential discussion of the role

DMPK Expert/PKPD Scientist - United Kingdom (South East)

A new and exciting opportunity has arisen to join a leading international pharmaceutical company

You will:

- Manage DMPK projects and negotiate PK/PD strategy
- Evaluate and report on studies with PK/PD components and you will work with modelling and simulation components of studies
- Lead line function sub teams
- Have a relevant PhD education
- Have strong PK and PK/PD evaluation techniques

You will be involved in and rewarded with:

- A vibrant team environment
- A lucrative career prospects and long term growth opportunities
- A competitive salary package

If you meet the necessary requirements to succeed in this exciting opportunity email your CV to marie@stelfoxuk.com <<mailto:marie@stelfoxuk.com>> or contact me on +44(0)1273 727 930 for a confidential discussion about the role